Who we are

Meet Andy and Susan Lorimer, the event planning experts with more than 25 years experience in the event rental industry. The couple met in 1990 while working at an Indianapolis rental company. They have been small business owners since 1998. Over the years they've run multiple businesses. The Lorimers currently operate four companies—each focused on planning and executing the perfect gatherings for their clients. Over the years they have planned and executed more than 7,000 events.

Along with a small full time staff and seasonal employees, the Lorimers pride themselves on providing peace of mind for the people they serve. The Lorimers are members of IAAPA (International Association of Amusement Parks and Attractions), ASTM (American Society for Testing and Materials) and Jump Train.

We used BIG BOUNCE for our Post Prom. We had a bunch of curve balls on our planning due to COVID-19 but the staff made everything easy on ALL of our changes. The service was amazing and they did not disappoint. From the set up to tear down to the communication through out. Everything was done professionally and efficiently. It's because of the awesome experience with this company that I would highly recommend BIG BOUNCE Fun House Rentals to any friends and family.

We provide a community event, free of charge, which is attended by several thousand people each year. It is only by the excellent service of Big Bounce Fun House Rentals that we could even hope to accomplish all the fun features of what we provide. Andy and Susan and the entire team, from the booking process all the way through cleanup of the event, are the most professional and responsible people, and they make sure every detail of every aspect of the process is done right. They hold their sub-contractors to the same high standards that they hold themselves to, and if there ever is a concern or problem, they handle it immediately and make sure the customer is satisfied. I have used their services on many occasions each year over the past 10 years and have never had even one bad experience. Thank you for offering such a huge variety of activities and equipment. Thanks for having a professional, energetic and caring staff that always goes above and beyond. And, thank you for making our events not only successful, but special every time.
